

Adam November

128 Meserole Street
Brooklyn, NY 11206
(914) 648-8577
ajnovember@gmail.com
www.adamnovember.com

EXPERIENCE

Code and Theory — Creative Programmer

March 2017 - April 2017

Developed firmware and consulted on hardware solutions for an audio device being designed at the agency.

Montclair State University — Guest Instructor

January 2016 - April 2016

Guest taught lessons in Max MSP and MIDI controller design in music technology department.

Urban Arts Partnership — Teaching Artist

September 2015 - December 2016

Taught classes in computer science and music technology in high schools around New York City.

Novalia — Experience Designer

September 2015 - March 2016

Created multimedia installations at South by Southwest and Nocturnal Wonderland for clients including Budweiser and Insomniac.

NYU Music Experience Design Lab — Research Assistant

November 2013 - January 2016

Designed and prototyped new physical and digital tools for music education and expression.

EDUCATION

New York University — B.M. in Music Technology

September 2011 - December 2014

-Minor in computer science

-Final GPA: 3.64

SKILLS

Microcontrollers, sensors,
analog circuits, soldering

Javascript, HTML, CSS, Java,
Python, C, Arduino, Max
MSP, MIT Scratch

Music recording and production, sound design,
audio for video, live sound

Pro Tools, Ableton Live,
Logic, Adobe Creative Suite

Conversational Spanish

AWARDS

Founders' Day Scholar

New York University,
December 2014

Outstanding Achievement in the Undergraduate Program

New York University Music
Technology, May 2014

2nd Place in Product Design Competition

New York University Music
Technology, May 2014